SES ACADEMY

Islamrat
für die Bundesrepublik Deutschland

Your voice. Your Europe.

Political Education for Young Muslims in Europe.

The SES Academy is an educational and empowerment programme by the Islamrat für die Bundesrepublik Deutschland for young Muslims aged 18 to 30 in Europe.

Through keynotes, country groups and workshops, participants engage with democracy, constitutions, political participation and international politics.

The aim is to understand social developments – and to help shape them.

Facts

Organiser	Islamrat für die Bundesrepublik Deutschland
In cooperation with	IGMG youth and women's youth organisations
Duration	April 2026 – June 2028 (est.)
Participants	around 150 young adults aged 18–30, in country groups including Germany, France and Austria
Format	Weekend seminars roughly every two months, plus winter and summer camps
Location	Cologne (Colonia-Allee 3) and other cities in Europe

Guests so far (selection)

Humza Yousaf (Former First Minister of Scotland) · Prof. Dr. Mathias Rohe (Universität Erlangen-Nürnberg) · Hubertus Heil (Former Federal Minister) · Farid Hafez, Ph.D. (William & Mary, USA) · Dr. Mustafa Cerić (Former Reis-ul-Ulema of Bosnia) · Mehmet Daimagüler (Lawyer and author)

The programme

01 Identity, Responsibility & Participation: Young Muslims in Europe
11–12 April 2026

02 Constitutions in Europe – Fundamentals & Current Challenges
13–14 June 2026

03 Skills Workshop – Analysis, Critical Thinking and Information Management
12–13 September 2026

04 Democracy in Europe – Forms, Opportunities & Stress Tests
14–15 November 2026

05 Winter School – Islam, Participation and Global Challenges
18–23 December 2026

\+ Further modules are in planning

Your contact

Murat Gümüş

Secretary General of the Islamrat and project coordinator

ses@islamrat.de · +49 221 942 240-210

ses.islamrat.de

A project of the Islamrat für die BRD in cooperation with the IGMG youth and women's youth organisations.